A full-page advertisement for Ray-Ban. On the left, a woman in a black latex outfit is shown from the waist up, her hands raised in a seductive pose. On the right, a woman with short hair, wearing a patterned top, leans forward with her arms crossed over her head, wearing dark sunglasses. The background is a dark, atmospheric setting with glowing neon signs, including one that reads "NS 000,000". The Ray-Ban logo is in the upper right corner, with the slogan "GENUINE SINCE 1937" below it. The main text "YOU'RE ON" is written in large, white, outlined letters across the center of the ad.
